Fr Bob Writes ...

This year April 1st brings us straight into the Triduum, the three days that Christians have been commemorating the death and resurrection of Jesus since Apostolic times, because his death and resurrection are at the heart of Christian salvation.

We begin on Holy Thursday (Maundy Thursday) evening at S. Andrew's (7.00pm) with the liturgy of the Lord's Supper, at which our Lord gave us the Eucharist - which we are privileged to be able to celebrate daily here in the Parish of Paignton. This liturgy has festive and joyful overtones, as bells ring and the Gloria is sung out with gusto! Vestments are the festive colour of white. This service concludes in procession to the Blessed Sacrament Chapel with the consecrated bread – which is used for communion next day. After the stripping of the altars the Watch begins, we wait quietly with the Lord until midnight.

The Good Friday liturgy is at 2.00pm in S. Boniface, where we keep the anniversary of the death of Jesus on the cross just outside the walls of Jerusalem, a day of quiet, sadness and mourning for the crucified and dead Jesus. This is the one day in the year the Eucharist is not celebrated, respecting the sacrificial action of Jesus on the cross. It is traditional that we venerate and kiss the cross, before receiving from the reserved sacrament of the night before. Until recent times Good Friday was kept in a quiet and solemn atmosphere, with shops and places of work closed.

By the second century, Christians celebrated the Great Easter Vigil, an event which began the night of Holy Saturday, continuing until dawn on Easter morning. During this vigil, Christians commemorated salvation history, awaited the return of Jesus, and celebrated the resurrection of Jesus at dawn on Easter Sunday. It was at the vigil that catechumens, after a three year period of catechesis, were baptized and received first communion. The Easter Vigil was the most important day of the liturgical year.

This liturgy of the Easter Vigil has four clearly defined parts: the service of light, the liturgy of the word, the celebration of baptism, and the Eucharist.

Our celebration of the Easter Vigil is at the Parish Church starting at 8.00pm, we begin in darkness, the new fire is lit and the Paschal Candle lighted, and blessed, as we move through the Nave and up the aisle to the altar the candles held by the congregation are lit.

This return of light symbolizes the resurrection of Jesus from the grave and the light of salvation and hope God brought into the world through the resurrection, the triumph of the light of God's grace and salvation over the darkness of death and sin. After the singing of the Exsultet (the ancient Easter Song of Praise), the church suddenly springs into light, to reveal the church decorated with flowers and especially the Easter lilies, the organ and music change to celebratory mode, the bells ring and we lift our voices as we celebrate the Risen Christ, with the singing of the Gloria. This is followed by the liturgy of the word and the blessing of the Baptismal Water and the Renewal of our Baptism Vows. Then the natural and proper climax of the whole Easter liturgy is the Eucharist, in which we are sacramentally reunited with our risen Lord.

So let us conclude our Lenten journey by the keeping of this three day commemoration of Jesus' passion, death and resurrection.

The Easter Message – Jesus is Returning. John 20: V7 “The cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings, but rolled up by itself.”

In Jewish tradition the folded cloth had to do with Master and Servant. When the servant set the dinner table for the master, he made sure that it was exactly the way the master wanted it. The table was furnished perfectly, and the servant would wait just out of sight, until the master had finished eating, and the servant would not touch the table until the master had finished. Now if the master had finished eating, he would rise from the table, wipe his fingers, his mouth and clean his beard, and would wad up the cloth and toss it across the table. The servant would then know to clear the table because in those days the wadded cloth meant “I'm done”. But if the master got up from the table, and folded his cloth and laid it beside the plate, the servant would not touch the table, because the folded cloth meant, “I'm coming back!”

Jesus is coming back!

May the God whose loving powers shatters tombs, shatter any doubt in me.

To Joy Panter-Thompson for making the posies presented on Mothering Sunday and to Sandra Chappell for baking cakes in order to raise money for the Easter Flowers.

Royal British Legion

St. Andrews were pleased to be awarded a Certificate of Appreciation at the awards ceremony on Friday 19th March. This was in recognition of the support St. Andrews gave to the Royal British Legion in hosting the 2009 Poppy Appeal Launch in the church.

We are very honoured that the Paignton Branch has asked us to host the event again in 2010 on the 29th October.

Dear Friends,

Now that my time at Paignton Parish Church is drawing to an end, I just wanted to put pen to paper to say thank you very much to everybody for a lovely 13 years here. I've enjoyed the time serving as organist and choirmaster at Paignton very much, and will have loads of happy memories to take away with me. I've valued the support you have given me in so many different ways – from those who have loyally attended the organ concerts, those who have listened to the organ music on Sundays and spotted any little tunes mischievously inserted (!), those who have thanked me on Sundays after the services for the music, and those who in any way have been encouraging and supportive. I've very much appreciated it all, and am very grateful to you all for your many kindnesses. Thank you.

I shall miss the parish church – the people, our lovely building, and the magnificent instrument – loads. But all good things must come to an end, and, whilst I'm sad to leave, I'm looking forward to the challenges of my next post, especially the magnificent choir which I shall inherit. Paignton will still remain dear in my heart for a long time to come, and I will return here from time to time as I will still have family and friends in this part of the world. So, if ever you want another organ concert (another last night of the proms with bells, rattles and whistles, anybody?!)...

I'm delighted to have persuaded a good friend of mine – Jason Smart – to have taken on the job. Jason is a fine organist, and a lovely person and, if you show him even half the friendliness and support you've shown me, I know Jason will be very happy at Paignton. I'm also grateful to Ron Edinborough for being willing to stand in for evening services due to Jason's long commute up from Plympton on Sundays.

I'd also like to thank the choir for all their enthusiasm and support – and for putting up with my own particular brand of organised chaos (pun intended!) over the years! Whilst small in number, they're a proficient team who work hard to achieve a good standard of singing each week. There are very few church choirs in our part of the world these days who manage to sing in four parts, and it's a tribute to them that, even with such a small number, they provide the four parts proficiently each Sunday, and I'm very grateful to them for all their effort and hard work. Thanks folks!

Lastly but by no means least, I'd like to pay tribute to my dear friend John Hopwood. Many of you will know that I spent some of my teenage years studying the organ at the Parish Church with John, who was probably the finest music teacher I was ever fortunate enough to have learnt with. As you'll know, John is very poorly indeed, and I've admired his great bravery in managing to fight his ill health in order to make it each Sunday morning to the Parish Church until comparatively recently when his increasing illness made this impossible. John was organist and choirmaster here from 1955 to 1990, and regularly assisted here after his retirement. He left a fine legacy, and I'm very grateful to him for all he has done. John, you're a wonderful person, and a very dear friend. Thank you for all your support over the years.

Thank you everybody – I've had a really wonderful time here, and will carry many happy memories with me. God bless you all.

Gareth

P.S. If anybody would ever like to write to keep me in touch with things at the Parish Church, my new address is The Director of Music's House, 21, St Peter's Mews, Church Street, Bexhill-on-Sea TN40 2UE. It would be lovely to hear how things are going from time to time!

Parish Prayer Group

The April meeting of the Parish of Paignton Prayer Group will be on Monday, 19 April, at 2.30pm in the Gallery of the Parish Church. This is open to everyone and newcomers will be very welcome. If you are unable to attend and feel able to pray on a daily basis for six names on the list, please contact me on 525373 and I will give you a copy of our list. All information given is absolutely confidential and only Christian names are listed (except in special circumstances).

We meet on the third Monday in every month except for Bank Holidays and during December. At the present time, the list is taken by 31 members and it is appreciated that not many of them can attend the meeting but our main strength is in daily prayer for the sick or distressed.

OUTLOOK

I met a member of church the other day who did not know about our Charity Shop at 22 Palace Avenue.... I was surprised as this is the start of our 4th year of trading.

All three of our churches in the Parish benefit from the fund raising by a small but committed group of volunteers, many of whom have been part of the team since we first opened and at the end of our financial year for 2009, we were able to give £13,154.95p to the Parochial Church Council.

This amount is very similar to 2008, but we are pleased that despite the "recession" the shop has continued to be a success.

I believe that everyone who works at "Outlook" agree that this project is worthwhile, we certainly have some amusing incidents and we all realise that we are playing an important part in our outreach in the community.

To keep trading, we do need:-

1. More donations (arrangements can be made for collection if required) Speak to your friends & relatives, Bernie & I even imported goods from South Wales on a recent visit
2. Bubble wrap & tissue paper
3. More volunteers, especially to cover for sickness & holidays.

If you can help in any way please contact:-
Bernie or Carol Haggett (01803 698038)

Mothers' Union

Six members together with three evening Mothers' Union members travelled to Exeter Cathedral to attend the Diocesan Triennial Commissioning Service and Sung Eucharist which incorporated a celebration of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Lady Day). The celebrant and preacher was the Rt Revd John Ford, Bishop of Plymouth, who is himself a member of the Mothers' Union. His address focused on the wide ranging membership of Mothers' Union. The parade of banners was impressive and uplifting and we thank Moira Devonport for carrying our banner.

After the service the nine of us enjoyed lunch together. All agreed that it had been a good time of celebration and fellowship.

The wave of prayer time for our branch is Friday April 9th between 11.00am and 4.30pm. Leaflets will be given out at our Corporate Communion on Wednesday April 7th.

Susan O'Brien

Parish Ladies' Group

Our February meeting took the form of a hands-on experience, when Dave Brimley instructed us in the art of chocolate making.

You can imagine the state of our hands, but the results were delicious.

Also in February, we held our annual lunch at the Palace Hotel, where we enjoyed our meal and also each other's company. We were also pleased to welcome Father Bob and Brigid as our guests.

In March our snack and chat lunch at the Palace Hotel was well attended. The next snack and chat lunch will be at the Livermead House Hotel at 12.30pm on the 19th April. Please join us.

At our meeting on Monday 26th April (7.30pm in the Hall) John Harvey will talk about Spring gardening, giving us advice on gardens, window boxes and pot plants. This will be an open evening.

Audrey Smith

All are welcome to join the Ladies' Group on their Theatre Trip to see Singing in the Rain (TOADS) at the Princess Theatre Torquay on Tuesday 29th June at 7.45pm.

Group concession £15 ticket for only £12.50 if paid by 30th May. Available from Jean Kitson.

A-LIVE

Have you ever thought about this little word A-LIVE
It really has such meaning with letters only five

Now A is for ATONEMENT the message of the cross
When Jesus took the sin of men and women at great cost

L is for the LIVING, yes the living Christ we acclaim
He lives with us each passing day and always stays the same

I is for INTERCESSION which he did for you and me
Between his Father and Himself as he hung upon the tree

Now V is for the VICTORY the devil he did slay
No longer in a tomb of darkness does our Saviour lay

E is for the EVERLASTING love, this sacred act displays
From everlasting to everlasting so the bible says

So if you really want to live a life that's full of love
Then take this little word and ask forgiveness from above

Because if your turn LIVE around you will surely see
That EVIL is the word it spells and all that death can be

Now A in front of LIVE is the ANSWER to our needs
Because if we don't answer to all Jesus heeds

There's only one thing that's left to us or so the Bible spells
Is a life of doubt and uncertainty and an eternity in HELL

So why not at this Easter make this little word A-LIVE
Be a day in your diary when you too became A-LIVE.

St George Patron Saint of England Feast Day 23rd April

St George was a Christian knight from the kingdom of Cappadocia (modern Turkey) who fought and killed what was presumed to be a dragon, to save the city of Syllene.

He was a martyr who suffered and died in Palestine circa AD303 before the reign of the Roman Emperor Constantine.

It was the Crusaders of King Richard the Lionheart who came back from the Holy Land with belief in the power of Saint George's intercession.

The constitution of Archbishop Chichele in 1415 decreed Saint George's Day one of the chief feast of the year in England.

Bell Ringing News

Holy Week and Good Friday

Paignton ringers keep to the tradition of not ringing during Holy Week until Good Friday. The bells, other than the tenor, the heaviest bell, will be half muffled, to make this special and solemn occasion. Paignton is not unique in ringing on this day, although not many other churches do, however Paignton have probably rung continuously for more Good Fridays than most other churches.

Forthcoming event – Coach outing

Paignton Ringers' May Day Outing for 2010 is being organised as a coach trip up to Ross on Wye. This is an ancient rural market town where we intend to spend our lunch time. The 700 year old parish church of St. Mary's is the town's most prominent landmark and its tall pointed spire is visible when approaching the town from all directions. The church holds several distinctive tombs, one of which – that of a certain William Rudhall (d.1530) – is one of the last great alabaster sculptures from the specialist masons of Nottingham, whose work was prized across medieval Europe.

The Plague Cross was erected in the church yard in 1637 as a memorial to 315 local people who died of the plague that year.

The town is known for its antique shops, market square with its market hall and high number of public houses. Regular Thursday and Saturday markets are held at the red sandstone Market House building in the town centre, which was built between 1650 and 1654 replacing an older building.

Opposite the church, The Prospect is a neat public garden offering a view of the famous horseshoe bend in the River Wye as well as pleasant views as far as the Black Mountains. The ruins of Wilton Castle lie to the west of the town, the Castle has now been fully restored and is now open to visitors.

An optional evening meal has been arranged on the journey coming back home. For more information or to book a seat, please contact the Captain, John Kelly, BEM.

Michael Webster

Give yourself a good workout – whatever age you are.

Ringling at Paignton keeps you fit as you have to walk up the numerous steps to reach the ringing chamber. You do not have to be physically strong to ring the bells as you use the weight of the bell to assist. Any age group is welcome to have a go, from 9 to 90. If you cannot manage the stairs, we have the answer, why not ring hand bells instead? You need flexibility of the wrist and a sense of timing. We are a sociable group of people of all ages and welcome anyone who just wants to come and look. If any of the above has tempted you, please do not hesitate to contact John Kelly, BEM.

John Kelly – President of the Devon Association of Ringers.

John attended the Novice competition held at Sandford, as President, in March and was called into action to support the Assistant Secretary in running this very popular competition where 16 teams entered. This is a time where newer ringers can meet fellow ringers from other parts of the County.

Parish Giving Officer

As St Paul says, God loves a cheerful giver. Would you like to spread cheerfulness in the parish?! Parishes across the diocese have been asked by James Hutchings (Mission Resources Officer) to nominate somebody as a Parish Giving Officer (PGO). The idea is for there to be someone who James can keep in touch with regarding ideas about encouraging giving of time, talents and money. Unlike many church roles it would not involve much time and certainly not on a weekly basis. If you are someone who enjoys communicating with others and is excited about the ministry and mission of the church here, this could be for you (NB you don't have to be a figures person)! It is up to each parish how they do it, but the sort of things the PGO might do include:

- * putting something about giving into the parish magazine every so often - a verse from scripture or some encouraging information about the positive impact of our church on people locally. And encouraging preachers/teachers in church to talk about why we give and how we should do it

- * at the time of the annual parochial church meeting, finding someone (ie doesn't have to be you!) in the church who will write a few words and perhaps some photos to go with the usual financial reports, to illustrate what everyone's giving has enabled to happen in the past year

- * once a year, work with the treasurer and PCC to have an annual review of giving in the parish. James can work with you on suggesting ideas for how to do this. It doesn't have to be complicated and it should be done as a team

- * at a different time of the year, once a year, arranging for everyone who gives of their time and money, to be thanked by letter.

- * keeping in touch with ideas about giving through James' network of other PGOs. Largely this would be done through e-mail, but there will be occasional PGO events to which you will be invited if you wish to learn more.

If you are interested in finding out more please let either Fr Bob, Ron Edinborough, Mavis Hawkins or Ann Howard know. It would be good to be able to appoint a Parish Giving Officer at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting on Sunday April 25th.

Church Electoral Roll

Every year up to date numbers of our church members are gathered together for our Church AGM, this year to be on 25th April at the Parish Hall.

If you are already on the Electoral Roll you need do nothing, but if not and you are over sixteen, then please complete a form and hand it to one of the Churchwardens.

Spare forms are at the back of the Church.

The Big Brew

This was an event held during Fairtrade Fortnight in various Churches and Centres in the Diocese of Exeter and in other Dioceses across the Country. Its aim was to promote Fairtrade good generally and Fairtrade Tea in particular.

Altogether we raised £278.70 from the sale of Fairtrade goods, home made cakes, the raffle, books and donations. This will go to Fairtrade.

I would like to thank everyone who made this event such a success. A splendid effort all round!

Gill Major

Thank you for your many cards and letters following Ray's death. Some of the phrases used were – 'he was a gentleman'; 'kind thoughtful and decent'; 'his quiet efficiency'; 'much loved and highly respected'; 'a life well lived'; 'a lovely man' and 'a truly Christian marriage' – yes I have been so blessed.

May I also thank you for your prayers for us both and your kindness. I will value the strength of friendships in the days ahead.
