INTO FAITH

I write this after the first of the TAP into Faith Lent Course sessions, Father Richard Silk on Holy Living. He spoke movingly about hope, and said that even for the troubled areas of our world there is hope because of the resurrection! It is the resurrection of Our Lord which is the bed-rock of the Christian faith. Nothing else is more important; everything flows from it. The sacraments are the sacraments of Easter; our hope of eternal life is hope because of Easter; our desire to preach the gospel is the result of Easter; our pastoral care offered to other is the result of Easter.

However, when we say Easter we really mean the Easter Triduum, the Three Great Days, the observance of which is older than Lent. We talk – at least the clergy do! – of the Paschal Mystery, by which they mean the death and resurrection and Jesus, Good Friday and Easter Day. And because the sacraments are the sacraments of Easter, because in the Eucharist we feed on the risen Lord, Maundy Thursday becomes part of that Paschal Mystery as we celebrate the giving by Jesus of the great sacrament of Holy Sacrifice and Holy Communion.

Then, because we have (or should have!) a great sense of the history of the Church through 2,000 years, we recall how the Church has always – almost from its earliest days – spend Easter Eve in vigil and waiting, during which the great Easter fire is lit, the Paschal (Good Friday and Easter) Candle is carried into the darkened church, the Easter water is blessed in the font, and the first Mass of Easter foreshadows the Easter banquet of the Kingdom of heaven.

Phew! What a marathon! And what a sadness that those who will expend an enormous amount of energy in getting everything ready for Christmas, who will go to umpteen carol services and eat umpteen mince pies, find the idea of going to church on four consecutive days impossible to countenance. The regular congregation of over one hundred at the Parish Church on a Sunday morning becomes sixty on Maundy Thursday, a few more on Good Friday, and a mere handful on Holy Saturday!

Nagging rarely works, as most husbands know and most wives fail to recognise! I don't want you to come and join these great services just because I have been nagging. I want you to come to these services – these four services of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Day – because they will deepen your understanding of what Lent has been all about. They will deepen your understanding of what Jesus went through for you and for me. They will deepen your spiritual appreciation of the suffering and death of Jesus, and they will certainly deepen your sharing in the joy of Easter. The mantra 'No pain, no gain', may only appeal to those who are committed to a punishing schedule of training in the gym! Nevertheless, there is something obviously right about only coming to celebrate Easter if we have been through Good Friday with Our Lord. The Watch on Maundy Thursday between 8.00pm and midnight is electric as we seek to do what the disciples couldn't and didn't do, watch with Jesus for an hour. The Veneration of the Cross on Good Friday is extremely moving as we seek to do what the disciples had run away from – standing by Our Lord during his suffering on the cross. Then, and only then, should we feel able to be there on Easter Day and hear the great good news – He is risen, alleluia!

On Saturday
15 March we invite you all to come and give a hand with the spring-cleaning of the Parish Church. Materials will be provided, but it won't hurt if you bring a duster or a mop or a vacuum cleaner.

We have three benches in the churchyard. One is looked after by the family who gave it. The other two need some tlc; rubbing down and varnishing or creosoting. Materials will be paid for; any volunteers?

The churchyard also has some very attractive lamps which also need some attention. Full instructions given!

Just turn up for the spring-clean. Please let us know if you can help with the benches or the lights.

THE ARTHUR DAY COLUMN

Last month I related how the former home of the Spragge family – then known as ‘The Quarry; - became the Roman Catholic monastery of the Marist Fathers. The actual conveyance of the property from that family to the Marist Fathers took place on 15 August, 1880. Whether by accident or design, the conveyance took place on the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a coincidence (if it was one) would have impressed the Spragges who were noted for their disapproval of anything savouring of Catholicism!

The Spragge family seem to have been prominent in the district, as for several years Torquay Boys’ Grammar School had a “House” named after them (I am grateful for this information to Miss Val Stephens – I was previously unaware of it).

But the family had links with two well-known names – one well-known locally, the other nationally. Captain Charles Henry Spragge, who owned ‘The Quarry’ and was noted for his dislike of anything suggestive of Catholicism, had a grandson, another Charles Henry Spragge, also an army officer, who became quite an active and well-known figure in local affairs, and who was Mayor of Torquay from 1908-1911, and was made of Freeman of the Borough in 1919, and died in 1920. It is surprising to learn that despite his forebears’ aversion to anything savouring of Catholicism he was churchwarden of All Saints’ Babbacombe! (I am grateful for this information to our bellringer, Mr Don Roberts.)

The other link with the Spragge family, who has become known nationally, was Charlotte Elliott, the hymn writer, who was the sister of the Mrs Charles Henry Spragge, wife of the owner who sold ‘The Quarry’ to the Marist Fathers. She gave us “Just as I am without one plea”, “Christians, seek not yet repose” and (understandably hardly ever used today) “My God, my Father, whilst I stray”. For about ten years in the mid-19th century she rented a house called Mornay Lodge in Springfield Road (it was demolished only a few years ago). She seemed to have shared her relatives’ prejudices. In a letter written, not from Torquay but from Brighton, she stated: “Our own beloved brothers and cousins also, thank God hold fast and support the truth; but more than one of our nephews, and many among our friends, have gone over to the Tractarian party, and think us narrow-minded, bigoted, illiberal and wanting in Catholic feelings Oh, how all these divisions and disputes, and errors and backsliding make me long for the glorious day when he shall appear and make us all one”

In another letter to another sister from Brighton in 1846 she wrote “We go back to Mornay Lodge and we have engaged our house there for a year. The climate is very mild, and the air soft and some say relaxing; but we are in a high position, above the damp and fogs which hang over Torquay, and we prefer the climate in winter to this, which is so much more sharp and bracing.

Nevertheless, in a letter from Mornay Lodge in 1857, she wrote “We are feeling the cold, even in this sheltered nook, but no serious illness, thanks to our grievous God, has visited either of us in the six months we have been here”.

A few years later, in a letter not written from Torquay, in 1865 she wrote that: “ ... I am getting confused now, and I cannot write a birthday letter as I long to do; but the least mental effort brings on a sort of stupor, and I am forbidden to write even to my poor isolated sister at Paignton” Mrs Spragge would still have been living at ‘The Quarry’ then, and it certainly would have been isolated then – where are now a lot of houses would then have been green fields, with ‘The Quarry’ well and truly “isolated” from the town.

Charlotte Elliot died in 1871, so she never lived to see her sister’s home used as a Roman Catholic monastery. She would probably not have been very pleased about it.

Thank goodness we live in an age when we can respect the feelings of other Christians, whatever they believe or practise. The sad thing is that the people who were so critical of each other’s allegiances were themselves good Christians.

OUTLOOK Charity Shop

After eleven months of trading, and having repaid the original loan to set up the venture, we held a get together lunch with our volunteer staff to present a cheque for £8000 to the Parochial Church Council.

We appreciate all the support and help we received from so many people. Our team of volunteers is made up from members of all three churches; and we have made many friends with shopkeepers and members of the community by our presence in Palace Avenue and despite early misgivings, everyone enjoys the time spent at Outlook and can recall many amusing incidents encountered while manning the shop.

Many hands make light work. If you could spare any time to help, we would always welcome the additional manpower. Please contact Rene Adams (01803 407214) or Carol Haggett (01803 698038) or any member of staff.

Our AGM will be held on Monday, 31 March under the chairmanship of Father Tubbs, who will talk to us after the meeting. If you wish to nominate someone for office please obtain their consent first in order to save embarrassment.

Advance notice: There will be a coach trip to visit Shelter Box at Helston during June. This will be open to all parishioners, friends and families. More details will be given at our next meeting.

MOTHERS UNION

Some of you will remember Win Davis one of our most loyal members of many years ago. She was also a member of the flower guild and initiated the Parish Church Christingle Service in 1984. She moved away to Solihull but returned to Paignton two years ago. Sadly she died recently. We send our sympathy and condolences to Sheila and Fred and all the family. May she rest in peace.

Many thanks to you all for your overwhelming response to our knitted squares appeal, which is an on-going project. Over 100 have been received but please make sure they measure 7 inches. Thank you too for our members who continue to knit clothes and blankets for the premature baby unit and especially to Helen our "star knitter!"

Your response to our appeal for unused holiday tokens is much appreciated. Disadvantaged families will be able to have a holiday thanks to your generosity.

Corporate Communion: Wednesday 5 March.

WOMEN S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER 7.3.08

This year the service has been compiled by the Christian women of Guyana. Despite the diversity of their background and ethnic groups, the people of Guyana are fulfilling their national motto – ‘One people, one nation, one destiny’. Guyana is much involved in the fight against Aids and HIV, and there is concern about the increase in the number of women infected.

HEAVEN S GROCERY STORE

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago.

One day, I saw a sign that said "Heaven's Grocery Store",

As I got a little close, the door came open wide,

And when I came to myself, I was standing inside.

I saw a host of Angels. They were standing everywhere.

One handed me a basket and said, "My child shop with care".

Everything a Christian needed was in the Grocery Store,

And all you couldn't carry, you could come back the next day for more.

First, I got some Patience, Love was in the same row,

Further down was understanding, you need that everywhere you go.

I got a box or two of wisdom, a bag or two of faith.

I couldn't miss the Holy Ghost for it was all over the place.

I stopped to get some Strength and Courage to help me run this race.

By then my basket was getting full, but I remembered some Grace.

I didn't forget Salvation for Salvation is free,

So I tried to get enough of that to save both you and me.

Then I started up to the counter to pay my grocery bill,

For I thought I had everything to do my Master's will.

As I went up the aisle I saw Prayer and I just had to put that in,

For I know that when I stepped outside, I would run right into sin.

Peace and Joy are plentiful, they were on the last shelf.

Song and Praises were hanging near so I just helped myself.

Then I said to the Angel, "Now, how much do I owe?"

He just smiled and said "Just take them everywhere you go".

Again, I said, "How much do I really owe?"

He smiled again and said:

"My child, Jesus paid your bill a long, long time ago!"
